

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

V

ORDER

This  day of  2013, came the Attorney for the Commonwealth and the defendant,  (dob , who stands charged with a misdemeanor, to-wit: Driving under the Influence, appeared in person and came also Kimberly Stover, his attorney.

Whereupon, the accused was arraigned and after private consultation with his said attorney, pleaded NOT GUILTY to Driving under the Influence, which plea was tendered by the accused in person.

The Court then impanelled thirteen qualified jurors, free from exception for the trial of the defendant, in the manner provided by law. Whereupon, the Attorney for the Commonwealth and the attorney for the defendant each alternately exercised their rights to strike the names of three veniremen from the panel, as provided by law, and the remaining seven jurors, constituting the jury for the trial of the defendant, were duly sworn.

After opening statements, the Court and jury heard the evidence presented by the Commonwealth and the defendant, at the conclusion of the Commonwealth's evidence the attorney for the defendant moved the Court to strike the evidence for reasons stated in the record, which motion was overruled by the Court.

After hearing the evidence, the instructions of the Court and argument of counsel, the jurors were sent to the jury room to consider their verdict. They subsequently returned their verdict in open court, in the following words:

"We, the Jury, find the Defendant,  NOT GUILTY of Driving Under the Influence as charged in the warrant."

Date:  2013

Foreperson:

Thereupon, the jury was discharged. It is considered by the Court that this defendant stands acquitted of the charge in accordance with the verdict of the jury.

The Court certifies that at all times during the trial of this case the defendant was personally present and his attorney was likewise personally present and capably represented the defendant.

And the defendant is allowed to depart.
