

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

V.

ORDER

This [REDACTED] 2016, came the Attorney for the Commonwealth and the defendant, [REDACTED] (DOB [REDACTED]), who stands charged with two felonies, to-wit: Count One: Attempted Street Robbery and Count Two: Malicious Wounding, was led to the bar in the custody of the Sheriff, and came also Kimberly Stover and [REDACTED] his attorneys. The translator appeared and was duly sworn.

The defendant's motion to dismiss was denied.

Whereupon, the accused was arraigned and after private consultation with his said attorney pleaded NOT GUILTY to Attempted Street Robbery as charged in Count One of the indictment and pleaded NOT GUILTY to Malicious Wounding as charged in Count Two of the indictment, which plea was tendered by the accused in person. The Court then impanelled thirty-two qualified jurors, free from exception for the trial of the defendant, in the manner provided by law. Whereupon, the Attorney for the Commonwealth and the attorney for the defendant each alternately exercised their rights to strike the names of four veniremen from the panel, as provided by law, and the remaining twelve jurors, constituting the jury for the trial of the defendant, were duly sworn.

After opening statements, the Court and jury heard the evidence presented by the Commonwealth and the defendant. At the conclusion of the Commonwealth's evidence, the defendant motioned the Court to strike, which motion was granted.

It is ordered that this case be hereby dismissed and ordered stricken from the docket.

The Court certifies that at all times during the trial of this case the defendant was personally present and his attorney was likewise personally present and capably represented the defendant.

And the defendant is remanded to the custody of the Sheriff to be processed for release.
